

SUNBURY WINE REGION
FESTIVAL

2009

25TH - 30TH AUGUST
www.sunburywines.com

Discover great food, impressive wines and fun for the whole family at the Sunbury Wine Region Festival, now in its 22nd year.

The festival opens on Tuesday 25th August with a wine dinner at Escagrill in Moonee Ponds. Taste your way through a Mediterranean-inspired menu, matched to an assortment of Sunbury's best wines including special back vintages and new releases.

Saturday 29th August offers wine tastings and master classes with the region's key winemakers at Craiglee. Don't miss this rare opportunity to learn more about your favourite wine style.

On Sunday 30th August the festival sweeps through the region's cellar doors. The day will be filled with live music and the very best local food and wine.

A complimentary bus service will be operating between Craiglee, Wildwood and Longview Creek Vineyard.

One of Victoria's oldest wine regions, Sunbury has been producing wines since the 1860s to wide acclaim. Historically the region is most renowned for its shiraz, however more recently chardonnay, riesling, pinot noir, cabernet sauvignon, and some Italian varietals have been gaining more prominence.
